KEETS KIDNAPING STILL IS UNSOLVED MYSTERY

Springfield jeweler; a baby and a St.
Louis munitions maker today still maintained their innocence of any connection with the disappearance of fourteen-month-old Lloyd Keet, son of J. H.
Keet, a wealthy retired banker of Springfield.

The mystery that surrounds the child's disappearance seemingly is as far from solution as it was on the night his father drove an automobile many miles over Ozark hill roads, following instructions of the supposed kidnapers, only to return home empty-handed.
The city detectives announced, with the arrest last night of George Walker, a taxicab driver, that it was thought the When filling comfort kits, Red Cross workers say, needles should always be put in a piece of felt, rolled tightly and tied, so that they will not pro-trude through the cloth and stick those arrest last night of George Walker, a taxicab driver, that it was thought the link connecting the Clement plot and the Keet baby kidnaping soon would be established. Walker was implicated in the Clement plot in the signed confession of Claude Piersol, twenty-one years old, alleged leader of the scheme. Today it was said that three of the prisoners taken in connection with the various plots still remained in jail here, while the whereabouts of four others, one a woman, supposed to have been spirited away by the authorities yesterday under fear of violence by citizens of Springfield, was unknown. Taylor Adams, according to Paul M. O'Day, county prosecuting attorney, also made a written confession of implication in the same plot detailed by Falls Church Auxiliary made and fill-d fifty kits, which also have gone to Mrs. Larz Anderson and her commit-tee were early at the registration places Tuesday and served coffee to the busy men and women in the sta-

When word came to District of Columbia Red Cross headquarters that veterans were suffering from exhaustion at Union station the volunteer motor committee was called upon, and Mrs. Borden Harriman soon had her committee at work carrying the visitors to places where they were made comfortable.

Nurses have been furnished to crowded headquarters of veterans to attend to the ill and exhausted ones, and the Red Cross telephoned several physicians, who responded to the call and spent the night in the tents and other places, attending to those who needed help.

RUMANIA'S ARMY READY TO RESUME THE FIGHT

Premier Says His Country Is Keeping Its Promises Under Most Diff.cult Circumstances.

PARIS, June 7.—Rumania has re-organized her army and is ready to re-sume the fight, according to a state-ment by Premier Bratiano in xn inter-view with the Petrograd correspondent of the Parisien.

"The Russian democracy," said the Rumanian premier, "has launched a new peace formula, 'neither annexations nor indemnities,' and she wishes to impose that formula on her allies. Rumania finds the formula acceptable, as for as she is concerned. She did far as she is concerned. She did Rumania finds the formula acceptable, as far as she is concerned. She did not enter the war to make conquests. Her single object was and is the liberation of Rumanian territories enslaved by Hungary, which never had the right to dispose of themselves.

"My country is keeping its promises under the most difficult circumstances. It has been invaded by an enemy superior in numbers; it has lost its capital and more than half of its territory: it has suffered famine and disease, but it has made a great and manly effort to reorganize its army and it has never given up the struggle. Today Rumania is ready to resume the fight. Its army is perfectly trained and it has material such as it never had before.

"In the crisis we are passing through, at a moment when the war seems to be approaching its final phase, Rumania, who kept her engagements toward the allies, has the right to expect that the allies, has the right to expect that the allies will remain faithful to the terms of the treaty binding them to her."

BOTH SIDES SEE VICTORY IN HOUSE SUFFRAGE FIGHT

Advocates and Opponents Find Comfort in Present Parliamentary Situation.

The advocates and opponents of universal woman suffrage were still arguing over whether yesterday's legislative events constituted a victory for the side or the other, or was a "dog"

lative events constituted a victory for one side or the other, or was a "dog fall."

The republicans say that while they were prevented from getting a vote on the motion to bring the constitutional amendment resolution out of committee and onto the House calendar, they accomplished something else probably more valuable—namely, that they forced the committee on rules to agree to the formation of a special committee on woman sufrage. This has been the aim of the suffragists all during this session, but up to yesterday failed of accomplishment. This is claimed as a distinct victory for the suffragists.

On the other hand, it is contended that it is an empty victory, inasmuch as the committee on rules provided that the report should not be made until all the war measures are completed, and that by that time Congress will be ready to adjourn.

The republicans will now proceed, it is said, to see if some way cannot be devised to knock the blocks out, now that the enterprise is on the ways, and launch it in time to be of some avail.

THIRD CEREALS CONFERENCE. Federal and State Workers to Meet at Kansas City June 12 to 14.

at Kansas City June 12 to 14.

A third interstate cereal conference of federal and state workers in problems involved in cereal production has been called to meet in Kansas City, Mo., June 12 to 14. Conferences have been held at Berkeley, Cal., and St. Paul, Minn.

Because of the importance of the enlargement of cereal production and of accomplishing economical utilization of these crops during the existing waremergency, an executive committee, representing the Department of Agriculture and the state experiment stations, has arranged a program devoted chiefly to these features, bearing especially on problems affecting the states of Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Colorado.
